Ted Lewis

has been painting for over 30 years and has won many awards. Ted is one of Australia's best outback and bush artists capturing the perspective, light and colours to perfection. Ted's paintings are sold worldwide with his fabulous oils of Sydney Harbour and Balmoral extremely popular at the gallery.

Eva Hannah

has been exhibiting with the gallery for over 20 years and is a very established Sydney artist exhibiting Australia wide. Her work is unique and easily recognisable with its bright happy palette. Eva exhibits yearly in St. Paul De Vence, France selling one of her paintings to Roger Moore. She also has a large following in Japan, especially with her fat ladies that have been reproduced in hand blown Morano Glass. KELLY HANNAH Eva's daughter is an up and coming new talent and Kelly's latest work will be on display at the exhibition also.

This fantastic eclectic exhibition will give an ambience and joie de vivre in any home.
